SUBJECT: Mark Lane

Reference is to exchange of LD telephone calls on this subject.

All sources of information, including airlines, hotels and so forth, have been checked and nothing was found to indicate that the subject returned to the San Francisco area from Washington on February 11, 1964.

Lane made three recent speeches in this area as follows:
Friday, February 7, to the DuBois Club of San Francisco; Saturday, February 8, to an audience at California Hall, 625 Polk, under the sponsorship of the National Guardian; Monday, February 10, before the DuBois Club of Berkeley, California, at the Student Union, University of California.

The DuBois Clubs are reputed to be groups of Communist Party youth and are supposedly officered by Party members.

In the audiences of all the speeches were F.B.I. and San Francisco Police informants who advised that the talk closely followed Lane's defense brief for Oswald, and he covered all the points that appeared in the brief. No handouts were made to the press, although Lane contacted various newspapers in the area concerning pre-speech publicity.

As far as can be determined at this time, Lane is not scheduled for additional speeches in the area. Contact was made at Hastings College of Law, San Francisco State College, City College of San Francisco, and at none of these institutions had inquiry been made on behalf of Lane.

Copies have been obtained of pages 5 through 9 of the National Guardian dated December 19, 1963, which contain the brief in its entirety. This is attached to this memorandum, and a newspaper article taken from the Berkeley Daily Gazette of February 11, 1964, is also forwarded.

Oswald Defended

Mark Lane, self-styled defense representative for the accused assassin of President Kennedy, told a crowd of 1,000 at the University of California Student Union Monday that "there exists no case whatsoever against Lee Harvey Oswald."

Lane cited conflicting testimony and evidence as the basis for his defense. Among the contradictions, he referred to the uncertainty over the identification of the murder weapon, with Dallas police stating the weapon was a German Mauser while the FBI declared it was an Italian carbine.

Lane also cited Dallas police testimony that three shots were fired although five shells were found.

Lane also drew attention to evidence that indicates Kennedy was not shot from behind. Dallas doctors, who made the original examination said they "were positive" one of the bullets entered through his throat. If this were true, Lane said, Oswald could not have killed Kennedy, for the President was wearing a brace which prevented him from turning around so that the front of his throat would be facing around.

The initial police report and eye witness accounts indicate that the shots were fired from the underpass in front of the cavalcade instead of the Texas Book Depository, he concluded.

SUBJECT: Assassination of President Kennedy, Dallas

Attached is a letter received by this office from G. V. Richardson, Warden, Federal Correctional Institution, Lompoc, California, dated February 20, 1964, addressed to ATSAIC Gopadze, enclosing envelope addressed to President Johnson, and a letter signed by inmate Richard Kendrick concerning the assassination of President Kennedy. The letter alleged that Jack Ruby was paid by the Party to kill Lee Harvey Oswald. Also attached is a handwritten statement prepared by Kendrick regarding the same matter, and copies of the classification report on Kendrick.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation, Los Angeles, has been advised concerning this matter, and copies of the above mentioned letter from Kendrick and his statement were furnished to Special Agents Charles B. Sullivan and Robert X. Ryan of the FBI. No further investigation is being conducted in this matter by this office.

Handwriting of Kendrick leaves very little doubt that he is the writer of a threatening letter with illegible signature, found by the officials of the Federal Correctional Institution, Lompoc, and referred to this office under file CO-2-35,689. This matter will be investigated on an agents next trip to that area.

Re: Kendrick, Richard Edward ✓
Our 4119-LC; FBI 531 552 E

Dear Mr. Gopadoze:

I am attaching a letter addressed to the President in which the above-named man states that he can give testimony regarding the assassination of President Kennedy. Also attached is a handwritten statement by Kendrick regarding the same matter. Kendrick has stated that he wishes to talk to an agent of the appropriate investigative agency. I am forwarding the written material to you for your information.

Kendrick was sentenced on July 2, 1963, in the Northern District of California at Sacramento, to serve a minority term (3 years, 10 months, 7 days) under the Federal Juvenile Delinquency Act (Dyer Act). He was originally committed to the Federal Correctional Institution, Englewood, Colorado, on July 13, 1963 and was transferred here on January 29, 1964. He is eligible for parole consideration at any time under the provisions of the Federal Juvenile Delinquency Act. His sentence will expire with part of good time on July 31, 1966. (He has forfeited 28 days statutory good time and has had 14 days good time withheld.)

I am attaching copies of the classification reports on Kendrick for your information. While I am not in a position to accurately assess the accuracy of his statement attached, I regard him as an unstable, unprincipled young man who cannot be relied upon.

If I can be of any assistance to you, please let me know.

Sincerely yours,

Mrs. Marina Oswald

Reference is made to your O/M of February 12, 1964, directing that Mohamed Reggab be interviewed at Berlin concerning his alleged association with Mrs. Marina Oswald during the period January 1961 until May 1961.

On February 20, 1964, inquiry at the U.S. Mission, Berlin, disclosed that Reggab first came to the notice of the American Refugee Center on May 18, 1963. Reggab had arrived in April 1963 in Berlin with his wife at which time his wife was five months pregnant. A personal record was taken on Reggab at the Refugee Center which indicated he had previously resided in the Soviet Union. A copy of this personal record was obtained and is herewith attached.

Because of Reggab's prior residence in the Soviet Union, he was debriefed by an official agency at which time he indicated an active dislike for the Soviet way of life. Interviewers were in contact with Reggab shortly after November 27, 1963, when he volunteered information concerning his alleged association with Mrs. Marina Oswald in Moscow during the period January to May 1961. Reggab was interviewed a number of times on these points, as recently as February 1, 1964, when he was given a polygraph examination concerning his alleged association with Mrs. Oswald which indicated deception. The evaluation of this polygraph examination and the tapes were forwarded to the United States about February 3, 1964.

During his frequent contacts with official sources, Reggab indicated that he was burdened with a number of problems, some of them financial or in connection with his ambition for a scholarship, and at least in one instance he sought financial assistance. In the first week of February 1964, he informed his official contacts that he had received word from Casablanca that he had been awarded a full scholarship to study in Berlin, but that he had to return to Casablanca to complete the necessary arrangements. He stated he expected to return to Berlin about March 1, 1964. He planned to depart via railroad to Gibraltar and from there proceed to Tangier. He endeavored to obtain money to underwrite his living expenses and other costs above and beyond his railroad tickets which he had obtained from his family. This request was denied, and at no time was he given any money by any American source. Reggab's wife and child were returning with him to Casablanca.

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

SS 1141

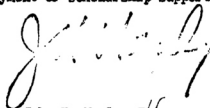

Prior to his departure, Reggab promised to obtain the letter and photograph of Mrs. Oswald which allegedly were with his possessions at his in-laws in Casablanca. He promised to bring these two items to Berlin when he returned about March 1, 1964.

I made inquiry at Muernbergstrasse 19, West Berlin, on February 20, 1964, where Reggab had occupied a one-room apartment with his wife and baby. The janitor stated that Reggab had returned to Morocco about two weeks before and had said he was not returning to Berlin.

On February 21, 1964, I had a conversation with an official source who undertook to notify his headquarters, by priority cable, of our interest in this matter with the urgent request that the complete file on Reggab be made available to this service without delay. This will afford an opportunity of coordinating the efforts of the interested agencies, and the members of the President's Commission will be able to make an evaluation and determination if further efforts are desired to locate and interview Reggab on the specific points raised in Mr. Shaffer's memorandum of February 7, 1964.

Enclosed is a photograph of Reggab obtained from official sources in Berlin. Also enclosed is a copy of a newsclipping from the Berlin Tagespiegel, of an unspecified date in August 1963, which discusses Reggab's hunger strike in Berlin because he was unable to obtain employment or scholarship support.

In 1960, Source's brother, Ben Abour, Morocco, for a scholarship to study motion picture production in USSR, after the Moroccan trade union "Union Marocaine du Travail" had refused to let Source leave one of the USSR scholarships and trade union held for distribution Moroccan Government approved of the scholarship to Source by Embassy of USSR.

On 6 Apr 63, Source and wife went up to Paris, France, to W BERLIN (no visa required for Moroccan citizens to continue studying here).

Source's home address: 168 rue Monnaie, CASABLANCA, Morocco. -A brother or half-brother works as chief cook (the name: Mohamed LOBO) at NOUSSER Air Base in CASABLANCA; intends to emigrate to USA. An uncle, Ben Abour ABDELMANED at CASABLANCA, Morocco, is in business at DAKAR, Senegal and LYON, France. Source has no relatives in any Soviet Bloc country; a cousin studies somewhere in W Germany. Source is well acquainted with Dr. HAMAND, cultural officer of the American Embassy in RABAT, Morocco.

Source is acquainted with all the professors of the motion picture operators' branch of above named MOSCOW school and knew about 60 Moroccan students there, 20 of whom have meanwhile broken off their studies and gone home. Knew the son, Andreas, of Soviet writer and party functionary (the name: MICHALKOW, and visited MICHALKOW's lavish apartment in MOSCOW. In MOSCOW and later at CASABLANCA, Source met Allal el FASSI, leader of the Moroccan ITINIAL party. In March 62, Source had a date at a MOSCOW restaurant; he and the girl were arrested a few hours apart and subjected to lengthy interrogation, by members of the KOMSOMOL youth organization, for reasons unknown. In April 62, Source traveled to Leningrad without the required official permission and as a consequence had great trouble in obtaining his exit visa.

„Ich will dem Sozialamt nicht zur Last fallen!“

Marokkanisches Ehepaar im Hungerstreik gegen engherzige Bestimmungen

Hungerstreik eines marokkanischen Studenten und seiner hochschwangeren Ehefrau: Weil die Berliner Polizei und das Landesarbeitsamt ihm nicht gestatten, sich seinen Lebensunterhalt selbst zu verdienen, verweigerte der 25jährige Marokkaner Mohammed R. in seiner Unterkunft in der Tauentzienstraße tagelang die Nahrungsaufnahme. Auch seine 20jährige Ehefrau Fatima, die im September ein Baby erwartet, beteiligte sich eine Zeitlang am Hungerstreik. Erst nachdrückliche Vorhaltungen eines Arztes und mehrerer Freunde konnten das Ehepaar bewegen, die Protestaktion gestern abzubrechen.

„Ich bin gesund und kräftig, und ich kann arbeiten! Ich will nicht dem Sozialamt und den Berliner Steuerzahlern zur Last fallen!“ sagte Mohammed R. der „nach-deutsche“. Der junge Marokkaner, der in Berlin Filmtechnik studieren und später in seiner Heimat Kameramann werden will, kann das Verhalten der Ausländerpolizei und des Landesarbeitsamtes nicht verstehen.

● Im April dieses Jahres kam Mohammed R. nach Berlin und bewarb sich zum Studium an der „Fachschule für Optik und Fototechnik“ in Charlottenburg. Zuvor hatte er nach einjährigem Studium in Paris eine Zwischenprüfung nicht bestanden, so daß sein Stipendium von der marokkanischen Regierung nicht verlängert wurde. Nach eigener Aussage erkundigte er sich daraufhin bei der deutschen und amerikanischen Botschaft nach Studiemöglichkeiten mit Stipendium, erhielt aber Absagen. Die sowjetische Botschaft in Paris jedoch besorgte ihm ein Stipendium an einer Fachschule in Moskau und bezahlte die Flugkosten.

„Schon bald wurde ich von russischen Studenten bespitzelt!“ sagt Mohammed R. „Die regelmäßige politische Schulung wurde für wichtiger angesehen als das Studium. Auch rein lässlich hatte ich Krüger. So wurde in einem Lehrgang ein Foto von mir abgelehnt, nur weil auch eine westliche Zigarettenpackung abgebildet war!“

➤ Nach zwei Jahren Studium heiratete Mohammed R. bei einem Ferienaufenthalt in seiner Heimat seine Verlobte

Fatima, der jedoch die Einreise nach Moskau verweigert wurde. Daraufhin brach er sein Studium in Moskau ab und absolvierte ein sechsmonatiges Praktikum beim marokkanischen Fernsehen.

Über Paris kam er nach Berlin. Hier verweigerte ihm die Ausländerpolizei die Aufenthaltsgenehmigung, weil er mittellos dem Sozialamt zur Last fallen würde. Bis im Oktober über seine Zulassung zur Fachschule und über ein Stipendium entschieden wird, darf der Student aber ohne Aufenthaltsgenehmigung nicht arbeiten, um seine schwangere Frau und sich zu ernähren!

Sobald Mohammed R. der Polizei seine Studienzulassung vorlegen kann, darf er in Berlin bleiben und studieren, aber nicht arbeiten. Wenn er ein Stipendium bekommt, ist alles in Ordnung. Doch bis zur Entscheidung darüber müssen Mohammed R. und seine Frau bis Oktober vom Sozialamt unterstützt werden. Völlig verstört protestierte das Ehepaar mit einem wirkungslosen Hungerstreik gegen die Bestimmungen der Polizei und des Landesarbeitsamtes.

➤ Doch auch im Interesse der Berliner Steuerzahler sollten endlich die gesetzlichen Voraussetzungen dafür geschaffen werden, daß arbeitswillige Ausländer nicht gezwungen werden, von Sozialunterstützung zu leben! —Üs—

IM SEPTEMBER KOMMT das Baby, ganz besonders aus diesem Grunde hat Frau Fatima zusammen mit ihrem Mann den Hungerstreik aufgegeben. Mohammed Reggab möchte arbeiten, aber er kommt aus dem Teufelskreis d. Verordnungen und Bestimmungen nicht heraus. Foto: Manth

Kinder erholen sich in Berlin

Auch die Kinder, die in den Ferien nicht verreisen können, sollen sich erholen. Das ist die Devise des Bezirksamtes Neukölln.

In jeder Woche werden die Sechsbis Achtzehnjährigen mit BVG-Bussen abgeholt und an das Große Fenster im Grunewald gefahren. Unter der Aufsicht von freiwilligen Helfern der Deutschen Lebensrettungsgesellschaft können sich die Kinder, die mit ihren roten Kappen gut zu überwaschen sind, im Wasser tummeln.

Ein bißchen weiter, auf der Insel Schwane werder, verleben die Sechsbis Neunjährigen einen vierwöchigen Urlaub. Leider müssen sie jeden Abend wieder nach Hause und jeden Morgen auf die Insel zurückfahren, weil man für die Kinder keine Unterbringungsmöglichkeiten hat.

Im ehemaligen Kurheim Kladow geht es den rund 400 Kleinen (dre bis sechs Jahre) nicht anders. Aus sie müssen die tägliche Reise an treten, weil auf dem Gelände kein entsprechenden Unterbringungs möglichkeiten vorhanden sind. Trotz der nicht gerade idealen Um stände, freuen sie sich jeden Tag wenn es wieder ins Freie geht. D

Feuerwehr fing Schlange

Berlin (Ibn). Die Feuerwehr fing am Dienstagabend auf dem Hof des Hauses Salzburger Straße 3 in Schöneberg eine ein Meter lange Schlange, die von Hausbewohnern entdeckt worden war. Sie wurde gestern im Aquarium als Dismaschlange — ein besonders schönes Exemplar — identifiziert, ein giftige Art, die in Nordafrika und Asien vorkommt. Vermutlich hat es einem Liebhaber entkommen.
